

The speaker emphasizes that war is senselessness in an era of powerful nuclear weapons, which can cause global destruction for generations. Spending billions on weapons only to avoid war, and being is not the way to bring peace. The speaker says peace is possible if we change our attitude and stop believing war is unavoidable. Since problems created by people can be solved by people, we must stay hopeful and work step by step toward peace, showing that it's realistic goal for everyone.

Total word — 430

words in para — 108

Title .

The need for peace
in Nuclear world.

Q#3

Date: _____

Q#03

① Drought is an atmospheric condition where there is no rainfall for weeks, and months too. When streams and rivers dried up. It contributes to drying over same land area and leads to increased precipitation which leads to risk of flooding. It can also cause intense heat waves, forest fires and heavy precipitation.

② A red sky at night is the shepherd's delight is a weather proverb, it means that a red sunset often signals good weather. This saying is rooted in weather patterns during sunset, and red sky indicates high pressure and stable weather.

③ Forecasting a weather, has always been a difficult task. Because many different things affected the weather and each one has to be carefully studied. ~~So as before~~ Before we can make ~~a~~ even a fairly accurate forecast.

Date: _____

⑤ In the early times, when there were no instruments such as thermometer or barometer, man looked for tell-tale signs in the sky. He made his forecast by watching the flight of birds or the way smoke rose from a fire. He thought that moon controlled the weather that it held a lot of water especially when a crescent-shaped moon lay on its back.

Q#04

Date: _____

Q#04.

Correct any five sentences.

i) Allen Turing was a scholar, a scientist, and artistic.

Allen Turing was a scholar, a scientist and artistic.

ii) Jim let his son to listen with her friends.

Jim let his son to listen with his friends.

iii) He has four-years subscription to that magazine.

He has four year subscription to that magazine.

iv) Your heritage is different than mine.

Your heritage is different from mine.

v) The dispute between the faculty and administration was not resolved until they got better working conditions.

The dispute between the faculty and the administration was not resolved until they got better working conditions.

Q#5 Punctuate

Date: _____

I fly sat on one of the shafts
of a cart, and said to the mule; who was pulling
it. How slow you are! Do mind your peace or I shall have to use my stick. As a goad, the mule was not in the least disturbed. Behind me in the cart sat,
he sits my master; he
hold the reins, and flicks
me with his whip and him!!
I obey, but I don't want any of your impudence. I know
when I may dawdle
and when I may not!

Q. 205 (13)

Date: _____

reposition

i) we walked along the beach for several hours.

ii) If you study the material very thoroughly, you will have no trouble in the examination.

iii) we were ~~not~~ walking through the woods, when, all of a sudden, we heard a strange sound.

iv) The course will commence on 27 May, 2025.

v) Propose this cycle on the way.

Q#6 (B)

Date: _____

In the courtroom, judge addressed Mr. Thomsen that he was seeking compensation for wrongful termination. Mr. Thomsen believed that he had been unfairly dismissed after eight months. The judge explained that according to the law employees with less than a year of service are not eligible for relief unless there is evidence of discrimination or specific right of violation. Mr. Thomsen insisted that his rights had been violated but judge clarified that without those grounds, he could not grant relief. When Mr. Thomsen asked if there was anything else he could do, the judge replied that his hands ~~to~~ were tied by the law. Mr. Thomsen acknowledged the situation and thanked the judge who then dismissed the case.

Q#7

Date: _____

Recently, a controversy came up at book festival in Lahore, because of instead of focusing on books and literary activities, there were many food stalls and non-literary things. This reshaped the main purpose of the event. Many visitors showed resentment and saying that "Book fair seemed more like a food market with less focus on books authors, and discussions. This heavy focus on food stalls started a debate about whether the fair was staying true to its literary purpose or just focus on making money."