Question #07

TRANSLATION

Recently, a dispute erupts in the book fair in Lahore. It is because instead of focusing on books and literary activities, the food and non-literary items were being sold. This hits the actual essence of book fair. Many attendees expressed worry and felt that book fair has almost been food streets. In which, a trivial space and consideration has left for books, writers, and ~~for~~ literary discussions. Owing to more focus on the food stalls in the fair, despite more focus was required on the books and selling and literary discussion, new discussion has been erupted that either this fair was promoting its literary goals or just valuing business benefits.

(Question #02)

PRECIS

or
"An Irrational Approach Towards Peace"

It is very irrational to think peace in this era, in which, the great powers hold sophisticated arms and highly explosive nuclear weapons. These all countries spent billions in the accumulation and maintenance of these arms. All the great powers justify this with the saying, "it is the pursuing of peace." However, it is completely illogical to pursue peace with accumulation of weapons, which can destroy world completely. Therefore, there is dire need of enlightenment of peace. Every one should play its role to highlight the importance of peace with
