

Why Nations Fail?

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statements: Nations fail when they lose grip on their ideology. It hinders their development and eventually lose recognition in the world. Nations can be secured by collaborative work and innovative policies.

2. Nations' Strength and Weakness

3. Causes of Nation's Failure

- a) lack of Strong Ideology
- b) Excessive External Interference
- c) lack of Integration (Isolation)
- d) lack of leadership
- e) lack of Defense
- f) lack of Patriots' Attitude
- g) Short Term Vision of Existence
- h) lack of Developmental Projects

4. Signs Of Failing Nations

- a) Survival on total External Support
- b) Lack of Self-Defense

5. How to Secure a Nation

- a) Work on Strengthening the Ideology
- b) Build Integration
- c) Reduce Dependency on External factors
- d) Fostering Developmental Projects

Date: DD MM YY

e) Build deterrence

6. Conclusion

Why Nations Fail

A Scholar mocked the boatman for wasting his life by not learning Astronomy, Mathematics and Philosophy. When the boat started sailing, the boatman asked the scholar...