

Kiran Shehzaadi

Batch # 368

LMS ID # 34307

Q. No. #1

Human beings are afraid of death as children have some fears, the fear of darkness of kids is increased by the mentality they are boosted by childhood. In the same way, the fear of human being is increased by the agony of dying men and the punishment they get due to sins.

Q. No. #2

If a human being regards death as a kind of punishment for his sins and if he looks upon death as a means of making an entry into another world. Then he is taking a sacred and religious view of death. Religious meditations about death is sometimes a mixture of jolly and superstition.

Q. No. #03

Monks have written books in which they described painful experiences of physical tortures about themselves as self purification from. Such the fear of death is increased.

Q. No. #04

Seneca, via's shows that the circumstances and ceremonies of death brighten people more than death itself would do.

Q. No. #5

A dying man is heard uttering groans, his face absolutely looks pale and bloodless, his friends begin to weep and his relatives perform various rituals
These facts make death
more horrible.