

Q2-	Title:- Advocating for Peace in the face of War	..i
	The writer emphasizes on peace in the face of war. In today's age total war makes no sense when a single nuclear weapon has more destruction capacity than weapons of all Allied air forces in World War -2 combined. Billions of dollars are spent on nuclear weapons every year to ensure peace while making sure not to use them. World Peace cannot be acquired until nation leaders adopt a more enlightened attitude. But at the same time people must re-examine their own attitude as individuals for a peaceful world. The problems are man-made and by clearly defining the goals people can draw hope and work towards building a peaceful world.	..i

Q3-

i- What is drought and what are its consequences?

Ans- A drought is the condition, when there is no rain for a longer period of time. Due to drought streams and rivers dry up, cattle dies from thirst and crops are ruined.

ii- Does the writer endorse the popular sayings about the red sky?

Ans- The writer does not endorse the saying about the red sky because it turns out to be wrong more often. The writer says that if this and all other such sayings were true, there would be no need of weather science or meteorology.

iii- Is weather forecasting a science; if so, what is it called?

Ans- Weather forecasting is a science and it is referred as weather science or meteorology.

iv- Why is it not easy to forecast the weather?

Ans- Forecasting the weather is not an easy task because there are many factors at play. Each factor has to be studied carefully to predict a fairly accurate forecast. Because failing to predict the weather quite accurately can have severe consequences for people such as droughts or floods.

v- How would the moon help the people in forecasting weather?

Ans- In ancient times, moon helped the people forecast weather because they thought moon controlled the weather and it held a lot of water, when it is shaped like crescent - sickle, laying on its back. Even today people think, moon lying on its back means that the rain is on its way.

Q4- Corrected Sentences

20
(A)

- i- The priest joined the bride and groom in the holy wedlock.
- ii- Allen Turing was a scholar, scientist and an artist.
- iii- The dispute between the faculty and the administration was not resolved until they got better working conditions.
- v- Tim let his son swim with her friends.
- vi- He has a four-year subscription to that magazine.

(4)

Q5-
(A)

Corrected

-10-

A fly sat on one of the shafts of a cart, and said to the mule who was pulling it; how slow you are, do mend your pace or I shall have to use my sting as a goad. The mule was not in the least disturbed behind me in the cart. said: he ~~is~~ sits my master, he holds the reins, and flicks me with his whip — and him I obey, but I don't want any of your impertinence. I know, when I may dawdle, and when I may not.

..i

..ii

..iii

..iv

..iv

(B)

- i- We walked on the beach for several hours last night.
- ii- Sam is going to the meeting in place of his brother, who has to work.
- iv- John called his brother with hopes of finding somebody to watch his children.
- vi- We were walking in the woods when, all of a sudden, we heard a strange sound.
- viii- Prop this cycle on the wall.

Q6-
(B)

112

The judge asked Mr. Thompson about seeking compensation for wrongful termination, to which he replied affirmatively saying he was unfairly dismissed. The judge inquired about his tenure which was eight months and told him under the law, employees with less than a year aren't eligible for relief unless there is evidence of discrimination or a specific rights violation. Plaintiff replied saying he felt his rights were violated to which the judge responded that relief cannot be granted on those grounds, and his hands are tied by the law. Plaintiff understood there is nothing he can do and the judge dismissed the case.

Q7-

Recently in a book fair in Lahore, an argument arose, because instead of focussing on books and literary activities, food stalls were stealing the lime light of the actual event. Many participants were disappointed saying that the book fair has become a food market, where there is a little place for books and readers. Rather the whole focus was on the food stalls. Due to this a debate started if the event was fulfilling its core purpose or the only focus was on trading benefits.