

(Comprehension Test)

(Unsa Mubeen 370)

Q.1 What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness? The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness is that human beings' fear is fueled by stories of the agony of dying and they regard death as a punishment of his sins. Whereas, children's fear is fueled by stories of ghosts and thieves.

Q.2 What is religious { sacred view of death?

A. A religious and sacred view of death considers it as a punishment for sins committed or a transition to another world.

Q.3 What are the painful experiences described by the monks in their book?

A. The painful experiences described by monks in their books includes physical tortures they inflicted upon themselves as a form of self-purification.

Q#4 What are the views of Seneca about death?

A= Seneca, the Roman philosopher, believes in the circumstances and ceremonies impacting death frighten people more than death itself.

Q#5 What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

A= Facts that make death appear more horrible are following below;

- Groans and Convulsion of dying man
- Bloodless and Pale face
- Mourning Clothes
- Rituals
- Friends and family were weeping