English (precis And Composition)

QNO. 2:-

Make a precis of given passage.

The writer talks about peace because of changed perception of war. Today, war could not be pursued in the era of nuclear powers. It is unbearable because recent nuclear weapons are more stronger than that were used in second world war. The radioactive material can spread in whole world through soil, air and water. We are spending billions on weapons used for deterrence but these useless stacks are necessary to maintain peace. Writer says that maintenance of peace is easy as compared to war. To talk about peace is useless unless the extremist national leaders take actions. Writer hopes about that actions and suggests to help them by our own correction. Every student and public should be responsible and accountable and should check our behaviour. Many of us have betie dangerous belief that peace is impossible and imaginary. Our synthesized problems and so-called thinking of unreal peace can be turned into hope by focused aim and management.
