

Ans 1) The major difference between human beings' death and children fear of darkness is that a child's fear increased by the stories of ghost and thieves whereas, human's fear of death is increased by the stories of monks and agony of dying man.

Ans) The religious and sacred view of death is that if one consider death as a punishment of his sins and as a means of entry into another world.

Ans) The monks described the physical torture they endure in order to purify themselves.

Ans) According to Seneca, the circumstances and ceremonies of death, frighten people more than death itself.

Ans) The mourning clothes of relatives, the people weeping around the dying man and the condition of the dying person makes death appear more horrible.