

Assignment NO 2:

Why I want to be a CSP Officer?

Because this is the best job in Pakistan becoming a dream of many individuals who aspire to contribute to the betterment of society and serve their country. The journey to becoming a CSP officer is challenging, but with dedication and right approach, it can be a rewarding experience. One of the most significant benefits of passing the CSS examination is the availability of government employment prospects and the ~~own~~ another main reason to become a CSP officer is considered prestigious and highly respected, protocols, and a good salary package as well. My biggest aim to become a CSP officer in future is either I know its not easy but efforts and my Hardwork make it possible. Insha'Allah I will fulfill my dream and become a CSP officer in future (Ameen).

QNO 2:

Lack of Efficient
(Issues & Remedy)

Human Resources

Lack of efficient
not only in higher educational in Pakistan But also in higher education Commission.

On the contrary in Pakistan education is treated as an step child. This system inefficiency has wasted the country manpower. Technical education is considered the most practical form of education Potentially developing society and social economic aspects. According to the Planning Commission of Pakistan less than six percent of the fourth population acquire Technical skill among which 2 percent practically implement them. The figure already indicates that Pakistan lack in both efficiency & productivity.

- To introduce updated and relevant curriculum.
- Well Mannered and Responsible faculty.
- To focus on the Moral development of the younger generation from the primary level of education.
- To increase Public investment in the education sector.

To conclude, a country Human Resources efficiency depend on its education system. Unfortunately Pakistan as a developing country has faced critical problem in education. Lack of political will, unequipped Teachers irrelevant and outdated curriculum, Therefore the education system has failed to play its part in achieving Human Resources.