- 5.1 Hitler manipulated the minds of the German people
 - 5.2 Nations fail if not keep themselves on track.

6 Women empowerment:

- 6.1 In WWII Germany failed due to the fact its Women were not involved in War.
- 6.2 Nations where Women empowerment is a myth, fail to progress.

Rigorous work is required on the making of the outline.

One can't find the difference between your arguments and evidence.

Besides, change some of your arguments. There is a difference between the state's failure and the failure of the nation.

You haven't understood the topic properly.

The Essay

Nelson Mandela who served 27 years in prison and was former President of South Africa said 'A nation should not be judged by how it treats its highest citizens, but its lowest ones.'

Nations fail because of the many reasons which collectively caused the decline of the nation. Some nations progress again with the time but by eliminating the factors responsible for their decline. Nations fail due to the political instability, corrupt politicians who continuously shift the power of the country, lack of enthusiasm in individuals.

You are supposed to tell the factors that eventually become the reason if Nations failure.

Avoid informal writing

And the politicians manage the country's stability, to history proved that the luxurious & careless attitude of the leaders decline the nations progress, strong educational system is the only way to keep the nations in a progressive track.

Britain, Germany progress and survival is the credit of their Universities. Germany lost the power because it was against of Women empowerment. Nations which are successful know the value of Women empowerment. Hence, all these collective factors make the nations fail or progress.

First Come - the political instability in nation. Nation progress hinders with the instability.

Where is your argument and analysis?

You are just explaining the example.

Your own analysis is missing.

is an example of such Political instability. In 1947, Pakistan emerged as an independent country in the World map. But Pakistan after 9 years of independence failed to make its Constitution due to the political instability. Nine years nation not get a track to run. From 1947 till today continuously power shifted from one hand to other. Besides that Poor Country passed 3 Martial laws which failed Pakistan as a Nation. Bangladesh and India, countries born with Pakistan enforces the Pakistan.

just because of their political instability. In Pakistan, four Governor Generals and seven prime ministers replaced from their seats whereas in India, Nehru lasted for a long time. Such type of political instability results in the separation of Bangladesh in 1971. Separation further shook the Pakistan - Political stability making the way of India in the world's free economies. Bangladesh exceeds from economically point of view than Pakistan.

Second reason behind the failure of the nation is the lack of enthusiastic leaders. Powerful leaders who born make their nation proud. Nelson Mandela, a former president of South Africa, who served 27 years in prison was a powerful leader who emerged and took his nation out of slavery. Quaid-e-Muhammed Ali Jinnah, a leader who rose and set only when gained the separate homeland for Muslims.

Again, you are just explaining the examples.

Your own analysis is missing.

When you claim something in your topic sentence then address how it happens.. don't jump to the examples.

The first reason for the decline of the nation is the American Civil War. He defended the nation as a Constitutional Union. He saved his nation from decline. In addition, Pakistan's birth with the struggles of the Great Leaders Quaid-e-Azam and Liaquat Ali Khan. Unfortunately, within a few years of Pakistan's independence, Pakistan lost the energetic leaders. Therefore, Pakistan as a nation declines. Henceforth, Pakistan's decline with the death of the enthusiastic leaders.

Third reason of nation's fail is the economic instability. It is the key factor which plays a pivotal role in the peace of the Nation. The imbalance between the rich and poor persons is the crime initiator. Islamic governance principles are effective to combat the problems of imbalance of poor and rich living. Zakat, a third pillar of Islam, is helpful in eliminating poverty. Nations fail if they not adopt the Islamic principles. Countries like Pakistan, which is a Islamic Republic must adopt the Zakat system to help the nation to progress. Luxurious living style of the rulers led the nation to the devastation. History is full of the examples of the luxurious life styles made the full Kingdoms to decline. Aurangzeb, an Mughal emperor, his successors indulged themselves in art, dance and music. Their lavish splendid living styles and careless attitude empowered the East India Company to flourish in their Kingdom. In addition to the empowerment of the East India Company the British invaded the land and established the

Furthermore, there are many more examples in the history which explained the economic instability can lead the nation towards failure.

In France, such economic instability results in the French Revolution. Millions of people gathered to revolt against the King. The tax payers were the peasants and the lower class, the Clergy and the noble persons were living the luxurious life. Suppressed lower class took the iron in hand and revolted.
So Economic Instability is such a powerful tool which should have to be handled carefully.

Economic Instability

failure or progress. India, China, France, America, Britain and many other progress countries do know it.

understand the importance of economic stability in the progress of the nation. As a result, they are continuously striving hard to compete in the economic growth. All of the strong nations of the world are economically strong. Acemoglu and Robinson in their Nobel Prize Winner book Why Nations fail argue that inclusive political and economic institutions lead to prosperity, while extractive institutions lead to poverty and failure.

Fourthly, literacy can uproot the dream of progress of Nation. Norway, Come on No 1 list of the happiest Countries in the World along with Norway, Finland, Denmark. These Countries are considered the happiest Countries and their literacy rate is almost 100 percent. Education and happiness go side by side. educational system. Education pave the way of progress of Nation. Governments of every state should pay attention towards education.
During the World War 2, Hitler and Churchill did the agreement that they both will not bomb their universities. Because both of the leaders knew the fact that if the universities and education system saved then the nations will save themselves. As a result, education saved and Britain progress with all credit goes to the Oxford, Harvard & like universities. Hence, education can save the nations from being lost.

Another major reason in the fail of the nations is the negative influences

Germany was one of the most powerful Country. Dictators like Hitler who loved blood shed and manipulated the minds of the German people shed the blood of many innocent civilians and rulers. Negative influencers who did alot of devastations lead the nations towards failure. Such dictators should be killed at time. Germany pay the heavy price for the hitler's planning. Germans lost their lives, area and also gave lot of money till many years.

It is considered - that Germans - failed as a nation because - they were against of women empowerment. They not allowed - the women to take part in - the war whereas Queen Elizabeth - took - the part in - the war and encouraged - the other

Women too. As a result, Britain won the game.

Nations fail due to the political instability, Corrupt leaders who exchange the Power for their own benefits, economic instability, fail because of the leaders' lacking qualities of leading,
illiteracy, no struggle towards education and advancements. Conservative mindsets which don't want to empower the Women are the persons who decline Nations.
