

Precis

title: _____ ?

^{author}

The speaker talks about peace in this era as strong nuclear powers cannot afford war today, because a single nuclear weapon is 10 times more explosive than combine allied air forces in Second World War. Similarly, the toxins produced due to nuclear war would be carried around the globe by air, water and soil. Today, lots of money is spent on nukes to maintain the peace which is irrational. Some people think that talking about peace is futile until the aggressive leaders of those states along with their citizens change their attitude. Everyone as a responsible citizen must change their outlook. He further says most of us think it is not possible and draw conclusions that war is unavoidable and, humans are cursed, which is a spurious belief. Our objectives should be clear and more manageable that can aid people to get hope from it.

General Instructions

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration of precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Don't use First person "I, we, our, us"
It is blunder in Precis.

0/20

Sentence Correction

10/10

- 1- Allen Turing was a scholar, a scientist and artistic.

Allen Turing was a scholar, a scientist and an artist.

- 2- The dispute between the faculty and administration was not resolved until they got better working conditions.

The dispute between the faculty and the administration was not resolved until the faculty got better working conditions.

- 3- The priest joined the bride and groom together in holy wedlock.

The priest joined the bride and groom in holy wedlock.

- 4- Tom let his son to swim with her friends.

Tom let his son swim with his friends.

- 5- Your heritage is different than mine.
Your heritage is different from mine.

(2)

You have to attempt only 5

6. Being thoroughly dissatisfied with the painting, it was hidden in the closet.

Being thoroughly dissatisfied with the painting, she hid it in the closet.

Prepositions

05/05

1. Sam is going to the meeting in place of his brother, who has to work

2. If you study the material very thoroughly, you will have no trouble in the examination.

3. We were walking through the woods when all of a sudden we heard a strange sound

4. The course will commence on 1st May, 2025.

5. Prop this cycle against the wall

6. The article discusses for the most part, the possibility of finding life on other planets.

Dialogue in Paragraph Form

03/05

The Judge asked Mr. Thompson whether he was seeking compensation for wrongful termination. He replied Mr. Thompson responded affirmatively with a yes saying that he was unfairly dismissed. The judge then confirmed that he had been let go after 8 months and Mr. Thompson reassured him. ^{later on,} The judge declared that employees with less than a year were not eligible for relief unless there were evidence of discrimination or specific violation of rights. Mr. Thompson, however, believed that his rights were violated. The judge acknowledged his feelings but denied granting him relief on those grounds. Mr. Thompson asked if he could do anything, to which the judge replied that his hands were tied by law and he can't do anything. Mr. Thompson thanked him and stated that he understood. The judge then dismissed the case.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please (2)
Do not attempt word by word

Translation

04/10

Recently a dispute emerged in a book fair, in Lahore because instead of focusing on the literary activities, there were numerous food stalls where eatables and other non-literary things were being sold, that detracted the real purpose of the book fair.

Most of the visitors expressed their dissatisfaction and felt that book fare had become centre of food where books, authors and literary dialogues had less space and attention. Due to giving extra importance to the food stalls in the fair, instead of promoting study and books, a debate has been started that whether this event was fulfilling its literary goals or mere trade profits were given priority or merely prioritizing commercial interests.

Punctuation

04/05

A fly sat on one of the shafts of a cart and said to the mule who was pulling it, "How slow you are! Do mend your pace, or I shall have to use my sting as a goad". The mule was not in the least disturbed.

• Behind me in the cart," said he,
"sits my master. He holds the reins and flicks me with his whip and him I obey, but I don't want any of your impertinence. I know when I may dawdle and when I may not."