

Bahadur Khan

367

Question Number 01:

In the given excerpt, the writer expresses his views that both human beings and children are afraid of death and darkness respectively. The only difference is that fear of darkness of kids increases by the stories of ghosts and thieves. And the fear of death of human beings increases by stories of painful experiences of a dying man.

Question Number 02:

The religious and sacred view of death is that if human beings take death as a transmission from one world into another world. Also they consider death a redemption for paying of sins,

2/
They have committed in their past lives.

Question Number 03:

Follow the tense of the asked question

Yorins in their books describe their painful experience of physical torture which they inflicting upon themselves for self-purification. If one listens their stories, he will certainly depict death as an unbearable trauma.

Question Number 04:

Seneca, the Roman Philosopher, describes the scenario of death is not fearful itself rather the ceremonies and preparations are fearful.

Question Number 05

According to given passage, certain circumstances make death appear more painful. Like a dying man is heard uttering groans; his body muscle is seen undergoing convulsions; his bloodless yellow face; at his death bed mourning and weepings of friends and all other ceremonies performed make death more painful and horrible. Otherwise it is not as such.

