

Don't capitalize all letters of the title
 TITLE: PURSUING PEACE IN NUCLEAR AGE.

04/20

Peace as a Practical Goal

For author the advocacy of peace is essential. Given the catastrophic potential of nuclear warfare and the possibility of total war. Rationality deters nuclear stockpiling as way to ensure peace. Instead, a more enlightened attitude towards nuclear world must be crafted by nations, world leaders and people. Everybody who wish to ensure peace, must ~~remove~~ ^{teach} his pessimistic, 'nuclear-dependent' peace outlook. Redefining goals around.

Overall Idea is OK
 Title needs improvement
 Grammar is OK

Restrict your length to 1/3rd of the original passage

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

~~and to maintain, peace is not impractical, society can and must create hope for the future mankind.~~

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

Total words: $430/3 = 143.3$

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

i- Droughts are defined as prolonged periods of no rainfall.

As water is essential to maintain life and lifestyle.

01 absence results in dried water flows, agricultural losses, and death of livestock.

07/20

ii- No, the writer doesn't endorse the popular sayings about the red sky. However, the writer mentions that 02 while these saying may sometimes be correct, they are often wrong and unreliable.

iii- Yes, the weather forecasting is a science. It is called ~~metorology~~. Don't answer in one line, increase length iv- Forecasting weather is difficult because many different variables affect the weather. Each must be considered separately crucial to make accurate or close to most accurate ~~deision~~ decision.

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively

Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Please enhance length of each answer

Read the passage carefully

Date: _____

Q- In early times, man believed that moon controlled the weather and that it contained a lot of water, especially when it appeared as a crescent lying on its back, which was thought to signify incoming rain.

QUESTION # 07 :

05/10

Most recently, a controversy arose at Lahore's book fair. Amid literary activities the attention found diverted to stalls selling food and other non-literary items, putting real cause of the festival into backburner. Many participants showed discontent and expressed view that book fair has turned into food market. Where space and collection for books, authors and literary dialogues have shranked. Due to this pronounced emphasis over food stalls instead of book sales, a debate erupted whether the event was fulfilling its literary purpose or merely prioritizing commercial interests.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

Focus on grammar please

Do not attempt word by word

Incomplete Paper