

Q1:

Ans: The difference between human being's fear of death and ~~fear of children~~ fear of darkness is that the latter based on imaginary stories and ~~which is not existable in nature~~. While, the former fear is based on reality and ^{has} existence as well.

Q2:

Ans: A religious and sacred view of death is that it is to admit that the death is just an ^{entrance} and pathway to the other world. And all his deeds will be rewarded ~~ac~~ in accordance to what he has done in his life.

Answers should be 5-7 lines long. And there should be at least two sentences in the answer.

Q3:

Ans: Monks described about physical torture ~~and~~ agony of death. He explains that human will be punished for his sins, and such thoughts of the people, further scare them about the death.

Q4:

Ans: Seneca is of the view that the rites and ceremonies performed on deaths ~~are~~ even more horrifying than the death itself. All the situations of a person's death ^{are} more scary for anyone ~~who~~ is present at that

Q5:

Ans: The facts ~~that~~ make death more horrible is hearing the stories about the situation of a deceased person, attending the ceremonies, the condition of friends and relatives at the ceremonies, and the rite and rituals performed ~~at~~ upon the death. All these facts contribute in making the death more horrible.