

Humans: Social animal

An Ethical Cycle Of Society

From the moment we are born, Others Serve their livelihood for us. We continuously need for assistance ✓ of all around us until we reach a stable stage of our lives. In this process our parents, teacher society, ancestor, and friends play a significant role Never write first person in the passage in our lives. Therefore, we have to returned them by working for us.

