The discord had emerged recently at Book Eats Lahore, due to the fact that, despite concentrating on educational and literary activities, food stalls were ~~present~~ there and selling food items and other non-literary products that detracted the real motive of the gala.

Most of the attendents expressed their grievances, and felt that "Book Eats" had become almost a food street, where there was little value and space for the books, authors and literary articles. Despite promoting the sell of the books there was excessive emphasis on food stalls; then, a debate had started, whether this festival was achieving its literary objective or prioritizing mere commercial purpose.
