The author talks about world peace as the ultimate goal of mankind. He correlates peace with war. With the tremendous increase in war might and machinery, engaging in war means complete destruction of world order and peace. Spending on war equipment is one way that acts as a deterrent to war. Proponents of peace should shift from working on inner peace. Many people believe ~~that peace can not be achieved without decreasing hostile among world leaders and nation. World Order and peace are ideals~~

~~Read the passage again
Concepts no. war is inevitable~~

Yet the author believes that all the problems are self made and it is important to keep trying to achieve peace and stability.

Review the rules of narration

Judge asked the plaintiff, "You're Seeking compensation for wrongful termination?" Plaintiff replied with a yes and said, "Your Honors I believe I was unfairly dismissed."

Judge further asked, "You were let go after eight months, correct?"

Plaintiff agreed. Judge stated that under the law, employees with less than a year aren't eligible for relief unless there's evidence of discrimination or a specific right violation. But Plaintiff felt that his rights were violated. Judge understood and said that without those grounds, he can't grant relief. Plaintiff asked, "So there's nothing I can do?" Judge replied, "Correct, Mr. Thompson. My hands are tied by the law." Plaintiff said, "Thank You, Your Honor. I understand." Judge dismissed the case.

Q7 Recently, there was a dispute in (hahore,) in a book fair in hahore. Rather than focusing on books and literary activities, there were multiple stalls that were selling food and non-literary items, that had seated the actual purpose of the fair. Many attendees expressed their disappointment and felt that "The Book Fair" had ~~majorly~~ become a food street, where books, authors and literary dialogue was given less space and attention. Instead of paying too much emphasis on the food stalls, it should have been on learning and the sale of books. A debate started on whether this event was fulfilling its literary purpose or was simply prioritizing economic benefits.
