

(Ans 1)

The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness is that children ~~are~~ ^{get} feared about listening stories of abstract things. Like ghosts and thieves bring fear to children. However, human beings ~~are~~ ^{get} ~~fear~~ because of material things like death of a person in accident and offering funeral prayer of a dead body.

(Ans 2)

Religious and sacred view of death is that, if a human being consider death as a ticket of entry into the world hereafter. Moreover, he considers death as a punishment for his sins. By keeping in view the above discussed facts then a human being holds a religious and sacred view of death.

(Ans 3)

Monks described the painful experiences in their books by focusing on the physical punishments. They further explained the horrors of the world hereafter by focusing on the ~~other~~ tortures inflicted upon a human being in the hell. These descriptions have produced more pains.

(Ans 4)

Seneca focused ^{more} on the funeral ceremonies than the death itself. That's why ~~the view about the~~ death have caused fear in human beings. The body position of a dead body like ~~weak pale~~ pale ~~and~~ ~~blood~~ body cause more fear than the death itself.

~~(Ans 5)~~

The body postures of a dying man and the frightening scenes of his friends and relatives weeping on him make the death more horrible. Like the body of a dying man is heard uttering groans because of pain and fear and his pale and bloodless face are such pale which make teeth appear more horrible.

Improve grammar and sentence structure