First comes the political instability which leads nations to failure.

This issue is highlighted since the Pakistan creation.

For this, we have experienced several martial laws. Political leaders instead of solving nation problems and work of its prosperity are busy in dissolving each other party.

An incident came across in the history of Pakistan when two political leaders of well known parties celebrated the existence of each other. Not only celebrated but also distributed sweets among their followers. Such attitudes causes political instabilities. Moreover, the political leaders despite solving the nation issue and created ways for its progress enjoy power. These leaders come into power to benefit themselves these are the main reason hindering the way for nation progress. Hence, until such leaders remain in politics, the nations will definitely fail.

After political instability, ~~the~~ lack of education leads the nation to failure. Education is a safeguard nation. If a literacy rate is low in a country, its people are unable to compete other nation.
Education changes the ~~mindset~~ and made one think broadly at every ~~aspect~~ of life.

Without education no nation is able to progress. One of the reason, of low literacy rate in a nation is the budget allocated for education system. ~~The budget for~~ education in Pakistan in 2021 is 7% that's why

Pakistan is lack behind in education in the world. The literacy rate of Pakistan is 62% and that of Norway is 100%

the institution. Students get degrees from well-known universities do not know the use of their education. Those who itself are confused what they learnt how they bring prosperity for a nation. The youngsters are future of nation. This inability of them leads the nations to failure.

Then another reason of failure of nation is gender inequality. This factor can be understood by this example that lower gender <sup>of nation</sup> equality lead to failure. During World War II, it seem that Germany would win the war because of its mighty army and advance weapons. But despite it zeal and zest, Germany lost the war because its restricted the role of women outside the world war. On the other hand, Queen Elizabeth II <sup>which</sup> served in automobile industry. The result was clear, Great

Won the war and Germany lost the war. This can be understood that without empowering woman a nation cannot progress. The role of women in different like education, medical, support, political played a significant role in the progress of nation. But patriarchal mindset did not let this happened. Hence, this patriarchal mindset causes the failure of nation.

Then comes the sectarianism issue which also leads a nation to failure. The Shia and Sunni conflict is a long lasting issue of history. This issue also causes division in the nation. As every sect has different practice and each wanted the rise of its own sect. This causes a large number of fight and result in death of innocent. As tribal conflict in district Kurram. This is the issue of land between Hindu and Sunni tribes. This ends on killing 42 marines and several injured. Such type of division in sects just causes loss of individuals and increase disunity among nations. Hence the disunity caused by sectarianism leads the nation to failure and blocked its prosperity.

Moreover, the another reason for the failure of nation is less technological developments. In this modern era, technological development become essential part of nation. Due to lack of technological development, a nation lags behind in technological wars among nation and which ultimately lead to its failure. Through technology, Israel killed the Hamas leaders. and very recently the killing of Yahya Sinwar through drone attack. This incident is an evident how much technological development is important to safeguard a nation. Hence, for a nation to failure, lack in technological reforms, plays a crucial role.

Furthermore, Corruption is a biggest disease in which leads a nation to failure. For a nation where no accountability of elite class and rule of law is just for poor how such nation save themselves from failure. Corruption in dealings, in education system in institution, in all such forms causes failure of nation.

For instance, the nation of Hazrat Shoaib include in embezzlement and did corruption in measurement.

Allah Almighty destroy that whole nation. Also, when there is corruption in justice system, this damage the peace of nation, which causes the failure of nation. Hence, Corruption is a disease which brings the nation to failure.

Lastly, in the presence of corruption and political instability economy of a nation is also unstable. When leaders are enjoying benefits and do not we give any initiative to public to invest and earn definitely economy of that nation must be instable. Also the poor tax system also cause economic instability. When tax does not properly collected or it is not in a hands of proper institutions. The economy will not stable. This economic instability brings poverty which lead to theft and increase criminal activity. Definitely when there is no right way for earning, nation will move towards criminal ways to earn their living. This acts as a poison for a nation. Hence, the ignorant behavior of government towards economic stability leads a nation to failure.

So far this essay shed light on factors which causes failure of nations. Significant remedies would be followed to counter this failure.

Most Strategy <sup>to counter</sup> ~~for~~ the failure of nation is improvement in political <sup>System</sup> leader. Honest political leader should be elected to resolve the ~~issue~~ of nation. This leader think prosperity of a nation before his benefits. Political leaders should not limited to their offices, they should have engagement with public in order to know their issues. Also they should tried to bring them unite. Because unity can bring prosperity of nation. The political leader should design such programmes which leads nation towards progress. Hence, a honest leader will never let the nation to failure.

Then there are reform needed in education system, in order to tackle this failure.

Don't explain examples

Education is a key to success for a nation. During World War II, the leaders of Germany request Great Britain leader ~~that if Britain~~ would not destroy their universities they would not ~~their ones~~. Both leaders agreed on this. The result is the excellent education system of ~~Germany Government~~ that offered ~~several educational~~ scholarships. ~~The Germany Progress~~ due to its educational system. This incident made clear that ~~education is most~~ significant in ~~bringing nations~~ prosperity. ~~So~~ <sup>and increase</sup> the ~~nation~~ <sup>government</sup> should design such program that everyone ~~will get education~~ easily. <sup>and increase</sup> ~~hence~~, reforms in education can hinder the way of future of a nation.

Also, eradicating sectarianism from a nation can bring its prosperity. When the sect division is displaced from the nation, the masses become <sup>unite</sup> ~~individual~~. This unity let them work together for the
