Q. NO. 4.

1) INTRODUCTION: SIR SYED'S TRINITY OF IDEAS:

The reformists of the sub-continent played a pivotal role in forming the basis of the two nation theory. One of the reformist was Sir Syed Ahmed Khan. His theory of trinity not only educated the Muslims, but laid the foundation for the demand of a separate electorate. It was through his efforts that the separate Muslim identity was preserved in the sub-continent. His efforts laid the foundation of two nation theory and Pakistan.

"EDUCATE YOURSELF, FOR THIS IS YOUR ONLY SALVATION."

— SIR SYED.

2). HISTORICAL SKETCH OF SIR SYED:

Sir Syed
Ahmed Khan was born in Phulat. After his early education, he became the judge of British.
After his retirement, he worked for the uplift of Muslims in sub-continent.

3). SIR SYED'S THEORY OF TRINITY: CRITICAL EVALUATION

(i). LOYALTY TOWARDS BRITISHERS:

After the war of independence, ^{in 1857} the Muslims were discriminated by the British. For the reconciliation of the Muslims with the British, Sir Syed ^{a magazine} wrote, "The causes of the Muslim revolt," and "The loyal Mohammedans of India."

(ii). DEVOTION TO EDUCATION:

Sir Syed was of the view that the Muslims should focus on their education. As the Hindus were more educated than the Muslims. For this purpose, he formed many institutes like Anglo-Oriental school and college, Gazipur Scientific society, Aligarh University etc.

Attempt these by giving multiple subheadings under each iii). ALDOFNES FROM POLITICS:

Sir Syed was of the view that the Muslims should remain aloof from the politics as they have lost the trust of the British and they should focus on their education instead of politics.

4). CRITICAL ANALYSIS:

It was through the efforts of Sir Syed that the Muslims of the subcontinent focused on the attainment of scientific knowledge and educated themselves. Sir Syed's efforts preserved the separate Muslim identity and attracted subsequent reformist movements. He played a pivotal role in turning the Muslims of the subcontinent.

Short answer. A 20 marks answer should have around 15 subheadings and be on 7-9 pages

5). CONCLUSION:

The theory of trinity given by Sir Syed was to reconcile the relations between the Britishers and the Muslims. It diverted the attention of the Muslims on the attainment of up-to-dated scientific knowledge. Thus, it was with the efforts of Sir Syed that the Muslims got awareness of their rights and demanded a separate electorate. Thus, it laid the foundation of Pakistan.
