NAME: A[illegible]ais Riaz
LMS-ID: 33974-
Batch 36T.

Omit some points
* Rephrase some of your points.
* Your essay is missing

ENGLISH ESSAY

MOCK - OUTLINE ONLY.

TOPIC: ECONOMIC IMPERIALISM - FACT OR FICTION

OUTLINE:

1) INTRODUCTION
2) ECONOMIC IMPERIALISM - a Fact:

Don't specify the names

(a) Influence of global powers, especially US and China, on the economy of the rest of World.
   (i) Evidence: US + China combined GDP ≈ 42% of world's GDP.

Rephrase it

(b) A few multinational corporations having control over resources.

(c) West shaping economic policy by controlling FDI
   (i) Evidence: US + EU ≈ 50% of World's FDI stock.

Rephrase it

(d) Conditionalities set by monetary bodies in providing loan at the expense of reducing spending on social sector.
   (i) Evidence: IMF loan agreements (70%) restriction.

(e) Tax avoidance of multinational companies in developing nations.

(i) Evidence : Developing nations lose around $100 billion annually.

(f) Developed nations re-exporting the imported raw-material by adding slight value, but at very high prices.

(i) Case Study : Cocoa beans export → $9.6 bn → by African region

Chocolate products export → $ 109 bn ↳ by EU nations.

(g) Limited opportunies in the developing countries leading to brain drain, hence benefitting wealthier countries.

(i) Evidence : More than 60% Pak doctors trained locally now working abroad

(h) Loss of Agricultural autonomy.

(i) Evidence : 40+ % of seeds used in global agriculture are controlled by a few large companies.

(i) Labour exploitation due to capitalism.

(i) Case Study : Bangladesh's garment industry workers → major Western brands.
$95/month — export : $42 bn annually.

(j) Unequal trade agreements limiting countries' economic growth prospects.

(i) Evidence : EU tariffs on African agricultural imports (50%)

(j) Debt-trap diplomacy through projects like [illegible]

Evidence : China provided $1 trillion in loans to over 150 countries for infrastructure projects.

↓

controlling strategic assets.

(k) Manufacturing relocation controlling regional supply chains.

Evidence : Chinese companies relocating an production plants to Asia.

(l) US control over the global financial system, giving them control over imposing sanctions.

Evidence : Sanctions imposed on Iran and Russia.

c) CONCLUSION.