Q-5Introduction:

Ijtihad mean "to Strive" and in Islamic law, refers to deriving legal rulings from Quran and ~~Sure~~ Sunnah. Practicing Ijtihad requires deep knowledge of these sources, an understanding of Islamic law's broader goals, and fluency in Arabic. While trained scholars should handle complex legal issues, knowledgeable Muslims can apply Ijtihad on personal matters that don't require a advanced expertise.

Concept of Ijtihad:

- In terminology, Ijtihad refers to reasoning or a muslim jurist exercising his own judgment regarding a Shariah ruling.
- It refers to the practice of formulating a Shariah ruling pertaining to an issue, the ruling of what which is not found in two primary sources
 - ① Quran
 - ② Sunnah
- The process through which a jurist / Mujtahid reaches to conclusion or a ruling is termed as 'Ijtihad'

How the Prophet encouraged his companions to Perform Ijtihad.

"if a judge Passes judgment and strives to reach the right conclusion and gets it right, he will have two rewards: If he Strives to reach the right conclusion but get it wrong, he will still have one reward." (Nasaai-5381)

Importance of Ijtihad in Modern Time

In today's rapidly changing world, new developments in technology, economics, and social life bring up question that were not present in earlier time. Ijtihad provide a way to address these modern issues, ensuring that Islamic principles stay relevant and adaptable.

for example.

Finance:

New financial product like Cryptocurrency need Islamic guidance to determine if they are permissible.

Medical Ethics

Issue like organ donation and genetic research raise question that can be addressed through Ijtihad, helping muslims navigate complex choices in healthcare.

Environmental Responsibility:

With growing concerns about climate change, Ijtihad can offer an Islamic perspective on environmental care, encouraging stewardship of the earth.

In Quran:

"we have made you a balance nation (Surah Al-Baqarah)

In Hadith: ^{The} Prophet Muhammad said;
"Allah will send to this Ummah at the beginning of every century someone who will renew its religion" (Abu Dawood) This suggests that Islam allows for renewal and fresh understanding, which is achieved through Ijtihad.

Q=4

Introduction:

Zakat means "growth" increase, or "Purification". It Purifies soul from greed, selfishness, and materialism, fostering love for Allah and humanity. By spending wealth for Allah's sake, Zakat Promotes moral and spiritual development.

Beyond its spiritual impact, Zakat has social and economic benefits. It builds brotherhood between rich and poor. Prevents wealth from concentrating in a few hands, and circulates money in the economy, strengthening social bonds and national wealth. Zakat one of Islam's five Pillars, is not just a tax but an act of worship, emphasized over 80 times in Quran, and often mentioned alongside Salât (Prayer). Salât Promotes unity and Zakat strengthens it by making the wealthy responsible for supporting those in need.

DATE: ___/___/___

Basic Concept:

In terminology, it is the amount to be taken out by a muslim from his wealth every year, provided that it reaches the Prescribed amount (ie 52.5 tolas of Silver)

A Person must calculate all his wealth at the end of each lunar year, and pay 2.5% of it as Zakat.

"And Perform the Prayer, and give alms (Zakat)." (Al-Baqarah-110)

Allah ordered his Prophet to collect zakat from the people.

"Receive contribution from their wealth to Purify them and Sanctify them with it; and pay for them (At-Taubah 103)

Eight Recipients of Zakat

Mentioned in the Quran.

"Charities are for the poor and the destitute, and those who administer them, and for reconciling hearts for freeing slaves, and those in debt, and in the Path of God, and for the traveler in traveler in need - an obligation from God is All-knowing Most Wise" (At-Taubah-60)

"And do good; Indeed, Allah loves the doers of good." (Surah-Al-Baqarah)

Q= 8 (a)

Accountability in Islam

Introduction:

Accountability in Islam is rooted in the concept of ammanah, which means trust." This means that Allah has entrusted human beings to uphold and spread His guidance by acting justly and fairly in their lives.

Every individual is seen as recipient of this trust and must be accountable to their community. They are responsible for fulfilling their duties and will be called to answer for their actions. This principle is highlighted in the Quran.

"And let there be [arising] from you a nation inviting to all that is good, enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong and those will be successful" (Surah Al-Imran) verse 104)

Concept of Accountability in Islam

In Islam everyone is responsible for their action both in life and hereafter regardless of their status, whether rich or poor. Rulers have a special responsibility for the welfare of their people; if they fail to meet their basic needs, they will be held accountable.

Accountability in Quran:

The concept of accountability is tied to fulfilling religious duties and promoting goodness while fighting against wrongdoing.

○ You who believe! Make not unlawful the good thing which Allah had made lawful for you, but commit no excess; for God loveth not those given to excess. Eat of the things which God^{had} provided for you, lawful and good; but fear Allah, in whom you believe (Al Maidah 87)

Allah instructs believers not to make unlawful what is law and to eat good things while being conscious of him.

Accountability in Hadith:

The Prophet Muhammad emphasize accountability in his teaching. He stated that if someone see wrongdoing, they correct it through action, words or at least disapproval in their heart, which reflects their faith.
