

Question No1

The human beings ^{are} afraid ^{of} death just as children ^{are} afraid to darkness. The children ^{hear} are afraid because they hear the stories that ghost and thieves ~~are~~ come at night. Similarly Human being has the toughness of death. They are frightful to death.

Question No2

The religious view of death is ^{that} man ^{enters} another ^{world} world. He faces the result of his doing. If he does ~~right~~ ^{right} he enters into heaven. in the result of bad evil he bears punishment. Therefore man are afraid to death.

Question No 3

Monks have written the painful experience of body torture. ^{They describe} He describes that the pain of death is unexplainable. It is like someone torture themselves to remove evil and purify his-self.

Question No 4

~~The~~ Seneca is a Roman philosopher who describes that the stories and perception of death makes it horrible for people. The circumstance makes it more afraid.

Questions-

There are certain circumstances that makes death more horrible. He is undergone convolution. His face become pale. He hears the voice of weep and crying of his family.

Poor grammar and sentence structure.
Improvement needed.

But his body does not work
these (body) selective performs different rituals. He observes everything. But do nothing it's makes it more horrible than it would be otherwise.