

PART - IIQuestion no: 2Precise of the passage.Title : Peace : of necessary goalTotal word count : 430Precise word count: 120 it should be around 143Precise:

The speaker advice for the peace in changed nature of warfare, the existence of nuclear weapons. 05/20

He argues that total war is illogical in a world where nuclear forces can destroy the whole ecosystem, and emphasized that spending on nuclear weapons to prevent their use is not an effective way to ensure peace. The ^{pursuit} of peace is not exciting as war, but it is ~~(exciting)~~ avoid cutting

Overall Idea is ok

Title needs improvement

Grammar is Ok

The speaker tried to provoke the individuals and nations to change their attitude towards peace, explaining that many perceive peace as impossible.

This leads to the conclusion that war is inevitable and peace is impracticable.

General Instructions

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

By clearly defining and managing goals of peace, humanity can cultivate hope and work towards achieving it.

Thus, every citizen who desires peace must begin with a change in attitude, recognizing peace as a realistic and necessary goal.

It.

Question no: 3

8/20

Answer The following questions.

(i)

Draught and its consequences:

Definition:

Draught is a prolonged period with low or no rainfall, causing dry conditions.

Write in single passage

Consequences:

Consequences of draught include water shortages for drinking, farming, and daily needs. It also causes crop failure, livestock loss, wildfires, and health risks. It has widespread effects impacting communities, economies, and natural systems.

(ii)

No, the writer does not fully endorse these popular sayings. While some weather sayings, like "A red sky at night is the shepherd's delight", a red sky in the morning is the shepherd's warning, are sometimes correct, the writer notes that they are more often wrong.

2

(iii)

Yes, weather forecasting is a science.
It is 4 marks question
Don't answer in one line
Explain more by understanding the passage and question

(iv)

Forecasting weather is difficult because many different factors affect the weather, each of them should be carefully studied. The complexity and interdependence of these factors make accurate forecasting challenging.

2

Date: 1/20

Mon Tue Wed Thu Fri Sat

(v)

People in earlier times believed that the moon could control the weather. They thought the moon held a lot of water, and when it appeared as a crescent, they took it as a sign that rain was on its way.

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

Question no: 4Sentence Correction.

10/20

Good

(i)

The priest joined The bride and groom in holy wedlock.

(ii)

Allen Turing was a scholar, a scientist, and an artist.

(v)

Tim let his son swim with his friends.

(vi)

He has four - year subscription to that magazine.

(vii)

Your heritage is different from mine.

Question no: 5A. Punctuation.

04/05

I fly sail on one of the shafts of a sail and said to the mule who was pulling it. "How slow you are! Do mend your pace, or I shall have to use my sting as a goad." The mule was not in the least disturbed. "Behind me in the cart," said he, "sits my master. He holds the reins and flicks me with his whip, and him I obey; but I do not want any of your impudence. I know when I may dawdle and when I may not."

B. Use of Prepositions.

02/05

(i)

She walked to the beach for several hours last night.

(ii)

Sam is going to the meeting in place of his brother, who has to work.

(iii)

The article discusses, for in The most part, The possibility of life on other planets.

(iv)

John called his brother in hope of finding somebody to watch his children.

(v)

If you study the material very thoroughly, you will have no trouble in the examination.

Question no : 6

A. Use words in sentences 03/05

(iv)

Peal : The peal of the bell could be heard from distance.

Peel : Peel the skin from apple.

(v)

Taut : The rope is drawn taut.

Taught : He taught me to read.

(vi)

Faint : Due to the scorching heat of the sun, she feels faint.

Feint : Both should be "correct" to get marks

(viii)

weak: If internet goes down, it will wreak havoc the communication.

Reek: She came out of the kitchen reeking of fish.

B. Rewrite The dialogues into Paragraph form.

05/05

In the court, judge asked Mr. Thompson, confirming that he was seeking compensation for wrongful termination. Mr. Thompson replied affirmatively, stating he believed he was unfairly dismissed. The judge noted that Mr. Thompson was let go after eight months, and explained that, by law, employees with less than a year's tenure are ineligible for relief unless there is evidence of discrimination or a specific rights violation. Mr. Thompson insisted that his rights had been violated. However, the judge clarified that, without such grounds, he could not grant relief. Thompson asked if there was something else he could do, but the judge stated that his hands were tied by the law. Thompson thanked the judge, and the case was dismissed.

Question no: 7

Translation.

Recently, a ~~conflict was created~~ controversy emerged in a fair at Lahore, because there were different stalls of food and other things instead of focusing on books and literary services. This set the real aim behind the back.

04/10

Many participants showed sadness and ~~feleed~~ felt that "books fair" had now become the food market in which less attention ~~has~~ paid towards the books, writers, and literary dialogues.

In that fair, due to the a lot of attention paid towards food stalls, an argument was started instead of reading and selling books.

Either, this event was trying to whether the event was truly fulfilling its literary objectives or merely prioritizing commercial interests, or just fulfilling its literary aim, or just focusing on the trading matters.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word