PEACE IS ACHIEVABLE

05/20

Peace as a Practical Goal

It is necessary to be vocal about peace amidst the contemporary nuclear arms race, which can cause unimaginable destruction. It is very inefficient to invest so much money and then ensure that the weapons are not used. A rational approach must be taken even if it is not the most heroic one. It is difficult to convince people to do so but it is a necessity. Some argue that change is possible only if leaders adopt it; however,

COMPREHENSION

PART i)

Drought is a prolonged period of water scarcity. It means that there is no precipitation and the area under consideration becomes water scarce. Its consequences can be very detrimental as the natural water ways dry up. There is not enough water for crops and it is also insufficient for animals. These all have a direct impact on human life.

PART ii)

The writer does not endorse the popular sayings about the red sky. Read the passage again. The writer endorses the saying about the red sky which says red sky at the night is good for a shepherd, however, the same at morning is a warning. He endorses this because of practically seeing how inaccurate it has proved to be in most scenarios.

PART iii)

0 | Weather forecasting is a science which predicts the weather as it affects many aspects of life, especially in areas with weather variation. The science is called meteorology or weather science. (i)

PART iv)

2 | It is not easy to forecast the weather because a lot of different factors affect the weather. Every affecting factor has to be evaluated and studied in detail in order to make a correct assumption. Ensuring accuracy is tough with the number of elements involved.

PART v)

F | People would take help through the moon in forecasting weather by evaluating position and inclination of the crescent. It was believed that if the moon is more inclined backwards, there is a chance of rain.

A fly sat on one of the shafts of a cart and said to the mule, who was pulling it: "How slow you are! Do mend your pace or I shall have to use my sting as a goad". The mule was not in the least disturbed, "Behind me in the cart" said he, "is my master; he holds the reins and flicks me with his whip, and him I obey; but I don't want any of your impertinence. I know when I may dangle, and when I may not".

Recently, an argument ~~started~~ ^{arose} ~~as~~ ⁱⁿ a ~~controversy~~ ^{debate} ~~at~~ ⁱⁿ a book fair in Lahore, as instead of focusing on books and literary activities, there were numerous stalls selling food and non-literary items; overshadowing the fair's original purpose. Many attendees expressed disappointment, feeling the "book fair" had mostly turned into a food festival, with limited space and attention for books, authors and literary discussions. The ~~over~~ ^{emphasis} on food stalls sparked a debate about whether the event was fulfilling its literary mission or simply prioritizing commercial interests.
