

Your some points are fine.

But your points are not enough to complete the essay

- * Try to come up with mature wordings
- * Improve your expressions
- * Improve your thesis statement
- * Make your sentences mature.
- * Work on your grammar
- * Improve the usage of conjunction

Must attend the tutorial session for further suggestions and flaws

The Nation Rises With Respect for Teachers.

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

Improve your thesis statement

It is evident that nations are raised with respect for teachers.

2. What are factors that resulted the nations are raised with respect for teachers?

2.1 Character <sup>Building</sup> development in classroom

2.2 children's personal growth to make intellectual

2.3 Awaring about civic responsibility

2.4 Having a good ethics and norms make a good leaders.

2.5 Teacher always encourage Youth.

3. Conclusion

Sentence structure mistake

The nations are relying on some components of society, and these components are pivotal of nations to raised up. The teachers are the main drivees of nations, who decided the future of nation.

Sentence structure and usage of conjunction either going in right direction or the wrong direction. Moreover, teacher illustrates that a parents who draw paths for their students. The role of teacher in raised the nations are character building of student and make it intellect intellectual. Secondly, teachers are the responsible of making a good leader and well-bing of society. Thirdly, it also grow developed integration in nation and make prosper of society. Therefore it is evident that nations are raised with respect for teachers. This essay throw the light how teachers played role in grow up nations.

To begin with, teachers are played pivotal role in character development. Further, character development encompasses that moral of society and values, this means that some factors affecting the nation.

1/202
Day:
when comparing both conditions of nation, the character developed is more progressing nation in the globe, on the other hand, countries having not work on character development are still considered as marginalized nations. Hence, character development is key component to raised up nation.

Further, teachers play pivotal role in personal growth of students. Personal growth means enhancing the personal capabilities of student. This is also boosting abilities of student. According to case study of "Japan", they are more worked on personal growth of students, this resulted that Japan is considered as develop nation. Therefore, personal growth done by proactive role of teacher and which caused to developed nation.

Additionally, teachers aware about civic responsibility which shows more civilized nations. Civic responsibility illustrates that aware about right and wrong. Further more, case in point, Scandinavian countries are civilized nations because they know their student about Civic responsibility.

Hence, Civic responsibility is essential component in raising the nation.

Secondly, it is proved that good norms and values which resulted good leaders in nations. Good leaders raised due to well educational background. Further, Case study of USA, having a good teacher resulted in good and more responsible leader. Leadership played important role in raising the nation.

Hence, it is important that good leadership bring nations to developed.

In a nutshell, nations are raised up due effective role of teachers. Furthermore, character developing and growth of intellectual can raised up nations.