

Hiba Ajub
33649

54

Human support, a survival tool

Since birth, we cannot survive alone. We are in continuous need of people for our body, soul and spirit. Attempt in a single paragraph

As children, parents are needed to comfort and teachers to educate us. We need our fellowmen everyday. As we grow and become independent in life, we follow laws for our rights made by other men and need friends to share grief and joy.