(1) what is the diff b/w human being's fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

The fear of death in humans and fear of darkness in children is similar ~~~~ that they both are influenced by external factors. Children's fear of darkness is increased by hearing the stories of ghost and thieves, while human being's fear of death is increased by hearing stories about the agony of dying man.

(2) what is a religious and sacred view -- ?

A religious and sacred view of death is when a human beings regard death as a punishment for their sins they have committed or as a mean of making an entry into another world.

(3) what are the painful experiences described --- ?

Monks have described the painful experiences in their books like they inflicted physical tortures upon themeselves as a form of self purification. Such books and such thoughts makes people think that the pain of death must be agonizing and increases man's fear of death.

(4) what are the views of seneca about death?

Seneca views death ceremonies and circumstances more horrible and frightten more than death itsey. Things like the groa of a dying man, undergoing convulsions of body. bloodless and pale face, weeping of his friend and various rituals.

(5) what are the facts that make death appea more - - - - - ?

The facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be includes the groaning of dyeing man, Underwater convulsion of body, bloodless and pale face, the weeping of his friends, the mourning clothes of his relatives and the ritual performed at or after death.