

ills of Higher Education

Date: _____

lack of efficient human resources is one of the major ills of higher Education. It is commonly seen that teachers are not competent enough to be teaching a Bachelor's degree program. Fresh fresh graduates are hired with no or less experience for teaching student of Bachelor's. No training programs are offered. Nepotism is also seen in hiring process. People who are less experienced are preferred over a person with good skillful experience in teaching. This is the worst discrimination among the educated youth. Salaries are also minimum ~~reported~~ as compared to their experience of teaching. The minimum wage of a visiting faculty member is 1500/- which does not justify the hardwork of teacher. Since the salaries are so less that

Date: _____

They leave jobs for their better options. This negatively affects the university and the efficiency of students. The discussed reason makes a path way that the irresponsible behaviour of teacher, lack of education, favouritism and less salaries plays role in the ills of Higher Education in Pakistan.

Why I want to be CSP:

Date: _____

Become a CSP officer was always a dream for me to contribute towards the betterment of the country.

Being a part of law enforcement team, I want to make sure the properly implementation of laws in the society, so we can reduce the multiple crimes happening lately. For the crimes like Robbery, Kidnapping, money laundering, corruption are increasing day by day and strict action are required to stop these. More one with the feeling of ~~respect~~ respect,

It also gives a job security for the future. It will be giving wide option of fields which I can choose according to my interest & skills.

It gives me a pleasant feeling of thinking my self to be contributing ~~country~~ better service of country.