

09/80 English Precis And Composition:

Question # 03:

(i)

07/20

Answer:

Drought is a period during which no rain falls and the rivers, streams and lakes are becoming dried. It is a difficult and hard period for survival of living organisms like cattle, sheep etc. The animals died mostly in this time. It also affects the agriculture and the crops were ruined due to shortage of water.

(ii)

Answer:

The writer does not endorse the popular sayings about the red sky

The writer tell us about the popular saying "A red sky" that in the morning the red sky is a shepherd's warning but it ^{may} has sometime true but mostly it is wrong. The writer believes that these sayings are not true. if they are right then ^{no} we don't need such instruments and methods for prediction of weather.

(iv)

Answer:

It is not easy to forecast the weather because there are many different things that are also responsible for affecting the weather and it is necessary to ^{study} studied each thing separately and carefully before making an accurate forecast.

(v)

Answer:

In early times, when there were no such instruments and methodology to predict the weather, the man thought that the moon ~~was~~ is responsible for controlling weather because he ^{had a thought} thinks that moon ^{had} has contain a lot of water. Even today, some people still believed that ~~moon~~ when the sight of moon is lying on its back, it means rain will fall.

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

(iii)

iii. Is weather forecasting a science; if so, what is it called?

Answer:

Read the question then answer

Weather forecasting is a difficult technique because there are many different things that can affect the weather so before making a weather forecasting, each one has to be studied carefully. We use different instruments like thermometer or barometer are used for weather forecasting.

Q5(b)

02/05

i) we walked ^{along} on the beach for several hours last night.

vii) The course will commence on 1st May, 2025.

iii) The article discusses ^{for} in the most part discusses, the possibility of life on other planet.

v) If you study the material very thoroughly, you will have no trouble in the examination.

ii) Sam is going to meeting ⁱⁿ at place of his

The Rational Pursuit of Peace in a Nuclear Age

brother, who has to work.

Q1: Precise Title: "War is Evitable"

The new war will come as it is necessary to speak about the peace now. There ~~are were~~ Follow the original passage are many wars that held in the past.

~~No war can~~ ^{ever} resolve a single dispute.

Although, the technology is updated and now a single nuclear weapon can destroy the same thing as that of the ten times of the explosive forces did in Second world war. Every country want to secure his peace and for that it spends billion of dollars for this purpose and these things are not enough to ^{bring} for keeping

Review the precis rules again peace in the country. we have to start from us firstly. Some of us just say that it is impossible to

Don't use I, we, Our, Us in Precise stop a war and to bring peace in the country. It is impossible until we will start examining our self our attitude as an individual. Our politicians also need to have a pleasant attitude

Every citizen of a nation has to be responsible for bring a peace in the society. we should examine our own attitude towards nation. Many of us think that war cannot be stop and peace will never came. it is a wrong and harmful perception. By focusing on our goal and we can brought a change in the mindset of such people and reverse it.

word count: 174

General Instructions

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Avoid Irrelevant Ideas

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage