Question no: 02

Answer:

Peace as a Practical Goal

Don't use "I, we, ou, us" in Precis
It is blunder

"Peace Instead of War"

In the new war dimensions, I speak of peace. This war makes no sense in an age when great powers can maintain large nuclear forces; when nuclear weapon is almost 10 times explosive and unsustainable. They just destroy and never create. Therefore, I speak of peace as the imperative rational end of rational men. People's pursuit of peace seems unmotivated. They think it is impossible to bring peace. Leaders of that nation do so. I hope they do. I believe we can help them do it. We must re-examine our own attitude, as individuals and as a nation, towards the possibilities of peace. We can make people become hopeful and to move irresistibly towards peace. This can be done by defining our goal clearly and by making it seem more manageable.
