If this world doesn't interest you, if you well up with the fear of Allah, if you develop fear of Allah with just the thought of hell, if you worship Allah just as it is prescribed, if you're compelled towards good deeds and your feet stop you from going towards the bad then you truly are pious. Some are naturally pious while some become overtime.

It is a blessing to be a pious man. To become pious, it is a continuous effort of purification and battles. It takes time and struggles.
