

God loves those who love his people

Abu Ben Adhem saw an angel in his room, writing something in a book. He asked the angel about what he is writing. Angel replied that he is writing the name of pious people. and he asked about his name. The angel replied in negation. and he requested the angel to write his name as a kind-hearted man. The next night the angel came and showed his name at the top of list.