

ENGLISH TEST - 1

It is impossible well-educated, thoughtful and courageous person focus only on making money as basic need. Every professional wants to make money. But a responsible professional always strive to achieve important goals in life. They prioritize the services rather than money. For example, a soldier, a fireman and a doctor pay for professional services. ~~But~~ if a soldier win the battle. He did not get paid. As same for fireman and doctor, they are not paid for extra efforts they make. However, a professional person always prioritize their work first than their fee.

Original Passage: 232
Passage Words: 86

Title: Professional individuals prioritize
Their profession