

M. Hassan Altaf

#310

Translation:-

History is enriched with such people who started their life from most difficult situations but in future they were enlisted in world famous and successful people. Success, Respect and Fame will never be served only wealth can - but it also has a condition that your ancestors have properties that will be inherited.

With money you can buy happiness essentials of life but not the happiness. Sometime it takes decades to earn respect while a single moment is sufficient to turn into dis-respectful or conspicuous.