History is full of the examples of successful people who started their life in most difficult circumstances but later on, they became renowned and successful figures of the world. Success, Honor and fame are never served to you on a silver platter, only money/wealth can be served in such a way that too requires your ancestors to have property. Only then you will get wealth. You can buy worldly comforts and luxuries with wealth but not happiness. Sometimes, it requires decades for a person to earn respect but it takes only a moment ^{if enough} to earn disgrace (or to become controversial).
