

If you are not attracted towards worldly things,

If your eyes got lēazy due to the fear of Allah, if the notion of hell induce the fear of God, if you do Allah's worship according to the define guidelines, if good deeds persuade you towards them, and your feet becomes bawier on way to the wrong path then you are a righteous. Few are righteous, few become righteous. Being a pious is the matter of good fortune. Becoming a pious is the continuous practice of purification and combatant. It takes time and have to endure sufferings.
