

Translation

If the world does not attract you, if fear of God brings tear to your eyes, if the concept of hell makes you fearing, if you pray to Allah the way it should be done, good deeds attract you and you stop yourself from bad deeds then you are righteous. Some are born righteous and become righteous. To be righteous is a blessing. To become righteous requires continuous sacrifice and evaluation. It takes time and you have to bear difficulties.
