

Philanthropy brings God's Love One night, the presence of an Angel awakened Abu bin Adam. Angel was writing names of God loving people.
Abu inquired and his name was not there. So, he asked angel to write his name among philanthropists. The next night, the angel emerged again with the list of people loved by God and Abu's name was on first.

Precis words = 62

Original text = 178