Précis

Prioritizing Work over Money

The sharp minded people take delight in the process of making money rather than money itself. ~~Similarly, the~~ Money appeals to the soldier but his ~~main goal~~ is to defend. Likewise, the prime purpose of the clergymen and the doctors is to preach and save lives respectively instead of just getting paid for their works. It demonstrates that all professionals focus more on their work itself than the benefit, that is, money they get from it.
