

TITLE : Purpose of Life is Not Money

It is not possible for well-educated and brave to make money and make his dinner the principal thing. As for the good mind people, soldiers and clergymen's their main purpose is not making money. So of doctors they like money because they are not brave and well-educated.

Like all other brave and well-educated men, their work is first and money is second.