History is filled with such successful people who begin their life in very tough conditions. Later, they became the successful and famous personalities of the world. Success, respect and fame is never <sup>served</sup> to you in plate, only wealth can be served in plate. There is one necessary condition for it as well that your ancestors possess property, only then you can acquire wealth. You can buy worldly items through wealth but happiness can not be bought. Sometimes, it takes ages for a man to earn respect but it takes a moment to become disrespectful and controversial.
