A philanthropist always puts human being as his/her first priority. However, A rational mind is attracted by money. A Soldier's mission is to fight and win, not to make business deals and earn money, A Doctor's duty is to cure patient and save them, In addition, A clergy's mission is to guide people and preach also. For philanthropists, Money is not the goal but it is the objective of their goal. The goal is to serve human being. Hence proved, Money still ranks at second position.
