

Precis Test 1

Title: Professionalism as a Secret of Success

All great men prefer their profession and work as ~~their~~ first priority. Earning money is not their major goal. They feel contented with their work. A successful person from any walk of life feels pleasure in his achievements rather than making money. Such people do not consider money as their primary source of happiness. Although money is essential, but it holds secondary importance in their lives.

Total words = ~203

Precis = 65