Read the following passage carefully and answer the following question.

Questions:

Why most of us fail in our efforts for self-improvement

New year is the time for making new goals. Everybody wants to fulfil their goals and improve themselves. But they did mistake while fulfil their resolution. They make a resolution that is full of ambitious. There is no such a reality or logic that will help to fulfil their goal. There is another reason to fail in efforts for self-improvement is to announce their goals in front of everyone.

They have no time to carry out their goals. That's main reason to fail in efforts for self-improvement.

Why is it a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody?

There is a big mistake to announce our resolution to everybody because the very next day, the whole family is watching our routine work. If we are trying to follow their own work routine then whole family will criticize our new routine work. At the end, we come back to our old schedule and do not perform their work properly.
