Abu Ben Adhem - the Man who Loved God.

Once, Abu ben adhem - a religious man, woke up from his peaceful dream and found an angel, in his room, writing down something in a book made of gold. Abu, unafraid, asked the content looking angel that what was he writing? The angel replied the names of those people who love God. To this, Abu inquired whether his name was in the book or not. The angel replied in negative. Abu requested the angel to note down his name as a philanthropic. The next night angel showed up again and revealed the list to Abu, in which Abu's name shone on the top, among the people blessed.
