Title: Money main desire of life

It is physically impossible for a brave man to make money the object of his thoughts. The main object of healthy people is his dinner while healthy mind make money to enjoy the wining. The main mission of good soldier life is to win battles. The essential object of clergymen is preaching and ~~not~~ ^{without} be paid for preaching. If the doctors are brave and well educated the main object of their lives is to cure their patient and not the fees. So, for all the brave and well-trained men, their first priority is work and second fee but second is always important.
