

English Translation Test-1

Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression.

History is full of such successful people who have begun their lives in extremely difficult circumstances but with the passage of time, they have been included among the successful and famous people of the world. Success, respect and fame are never served to you on a silver platter only wealth can be served to you on a silver platter and that too on a condition that your forefathers should have owned property. Only then you can get wealth. You can buy worldly comforts from wealth but cannot buy happiness. Sometimes it takes decades for a person to earn respect, while only a single moment is enough to earn disgrace or become controversial.
