Precis & Composition Quiz

Just as a well-read and shrewd man, despite all his intellect, cannot cook food - the basic necessity. Likewise, he cannot divert all his expertise solely towards earning money - the prime need, for satisfaction with work and gist of action hold more value than money. A devoted doctor, a brave soldier, or a pious clergyman all do their work for the sake of doing it. Money, though important, always falls second on the list of priorities.

Title :- Work - the first priority
