

If it would not attract you, fear of Allah moves you to tears, the vision of hell makes you afraid, and you pray to Allah as well, goodness attracts you more than bad then you are a pious person. Few are by birth pious and few make themselves pious. It is a fortunate thing to be pious but to make yourself pious is a continuous struggle of self purification because it is a process of continuous suffering ~~and~~ for a long time.